Given the competitive nature of the game of hockey, the expectations of its participants and the individuality of the Players, volunteers and Members of the Association, the Association acknowledges that disputes will arise from time-to-time amongst those involved with the Association. It is important to the Association that all such complaints are dealt with in a manner that is fair to all involved.

The Association strongly encourages the parties to disputes, where appropriate, to seek resolution through direct discussions or voluntary mediation and the exercise of common sense before resorting to the formal complaint and discipline procedures set out in these Bylaws.

Any formal complaint against any Member, Team, Player, team official, referee or Director must be reported in writing to the President within seven (7) days from the date on which the complaint arose.

14.2 Person entitled to respond to a complaint

Upon receipt of any complaint pursuant to section 14.1, the President, or designate appointed by the President, will, as soon as is reasonably practical, contact the Person who is the subject of the complaint (the "alleged offender") to advise them of the complaint and to allow the alleged offender to respond to any issues raised in the complaint, either in writing or in person.

The President, or designate appointed by the President, may also undertake a further investigation of the circumstances of the complaint to obtain further information about the issues raised in the complaint.

14.3 President to provide report to the Executive

If a complaint cannot be resolved informally by the President with the complainant and the alleged offender, the President will bring the complaint forward for review at the next scheduled meeting of the Executive. If the complaint raises issues that are, in the President's view, time sensitive and/or cannot wait to be addressed at the next scheduled Executive meeting, the President has the discretion to immediately refer the complaint to the Discipline Committee. A designate appointed by the President may be utilized at any point in this process.

14.4 Review by Executive

The Executive will review all complaints and will determine, by Executive Resolution, whether a particular complaint should be dismissed, further reviewed, referred to the Discipline Committee or whether it should be brought before a General Meeting.

A decision in writing will be provided to the complainant within four (4) days of such determination by the Executive.

14.5 Interim Suspension by President

The President will have the power to suspend any team, player, team official or Member who is subject of a complaint, or for unbecoming conduct on or off the ice, abusive language to any official, or for failure to comply with the Constitution, these Bylaws or the rules and regulations established by the Association. Interim suspensions up to a period of seven (7) days are unreviewable. The President shall notify the Discipline Committee of any suspension greater than seven (7) days without delay.

A Person who has been suspended by the President will not be eligible to participate in any games or conduct any official business of the Association during the period of suspension or, in the case of suspensions greater than seven (7) days, until the Discipline Committee has reviewed the suspension and made a determination.

14.6 Discipline Committee

The Association will establish and maintain a Discipline Committee as a standing committee of the Association. The Discipline Committee will consist of Persons appointed by the Executive from time-to-time and will be governed by the terms of reference and such discipline policies and procedures as are established by the Association.

The duties of the Discipline Committee are to review and determine all matters referred to the committee by the President or the Executive, including any interim suspensions ordered by the President under section 14.5.

14.7 Review by the Discipline Committee

After being notified by either the President or the Executive, the Discipline Committee will commence a review of any interim suspension greater than seven (7) days or referred complaint within seven (7) days of being notified. In reviewing any interim suspension greater than seven (7) days or complaint, the Discipline Committee is able to conduct or undertake its own investigation of the circumstances of the complaint.

Both the complainant and/ the alleged offender has the opportunity to provide further information for consideration by the Discipline Committee.

In determining a complaint or reviewing an interim suspension of greater than seven (7) days, the Discipline Committee may, in its discretion, impose such disciplinary action as is determined to be appropriate in the circumstances, including but not limited to a further period of suspension. Following its review, the Discipline Committee will communicate its determination to all relevant parties in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of the decision.

14.8 Appeals Committee

The Association will establish and maintain an Appeals Committee as a standing committee of the Association. The Appeals Committee will consist of Persons appointed by the Executive from time-to-time and the duty of the Appeals Committee is to hear appeals from decisions of the Discipline Committee.

The Appeals Committee may uphold, modify or overturn the decision of the Discipline Committee and may re-admit or terminate the disciplinary action determined against any team, Player or team official.

14.9 Appeal Process

The following rules apply to appeals to the Appeals Committee:

- (a) The complainant or the Alleged Offender (or the Parents of the Alleged Offender, where appropriate) may appeal any decision of the Discipline Committee to the Appeals Committee.
- (b) The Person making an appeal must prepare a written outline of all relevant particulars pertaining to the appeal and must deliver the outline to the President within seven (7) days of being notified of the decision of the Discipline Committee.

- (c) The President will then provide a copy of the outline to the Appeals Committee and the other parties to the complaint, who are then entitled to prepare a written outline of their position as it pertains to the complaint to be considered by the Appeals Committee. Any such written outline shall be provided to the Appeals Committee within four (4) days.
- (d) Once the Appeals Committee has received written outlines from all relevant parties, the committee will convene a meeting to hear the appeal. At the hearing of the appeal, the parties to the complaint will have the opportunity to be heard in person by the Appeals Committee.
- (e) The appeal must be dealt with by the Appeals Committee within five (5) days of the appeal hearing and the decision shall be in writing and will be communicated to all relevant parties in writing within forty-eight (48) hours of the decision.
- (f) A decision of the Appeals Committee may be further appealed to the Membership at a General Meeting, which appeal to the Membership must be made in writing with full particulars and submitted to the President within fourteen (14) days of the decision by the Appeals Committee.
- (g) The same process and timelines with respect to the exchange of written outlines for an appeal to the Appeals Committee, as set out in sections 14.9 (b) to (d), applies with respect to a further appeal to the Membership at a General Meeting.
- (h) The decision of the Members by Ordinary Resolution at a General Meeting will be the last and final recourse available to the appellant within the Association.

14.10 Policies

The Executive may establish further policies and procedures related to complaints, discipline and appeals provided that such policies and procedures will not be effective to the extent they are contrary to these Bylaws.

14.11 Parties to Exhaust Internal Remedies for Disputes

Any Member, Player or other Person who resorts to the Pacific Coast Amateur Hockey Association, the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association (BC Hockey), the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association (Hockey Canada) or external legal without first exhausting the appeal and dispute resolutions procedures provided in these Bylaws may, at the discretion of the Executive, be suspended.
